- o Prior experience in negotiating difficult alpine terrain

Health Policy

Within the Ultra-Trail World Tour special attention is paid to the athletes' health. Therefore, UTWT has established a special health policy, which applies for the competitions mozart 100 and mozart Ultra. These guidelines can be found in appendix 1. The compliance with this health policy is mandatory.

Indemnity and limitation of liability

In the case of force majeure or orders by public authorities or for safety reasons, the organiser is entitled or obliged to modify the implementation of the event or to cancel the event; in such a case, the organiser is not obliged to indemnify the participants. Entry fees received will not be refunded. The organiser as well as their legal representatives and agents are only liable in case of intentional or grossly negligent behaviour. The organiser does not accept liability for the athletes' health risks related to their participation in the event. The organiser does not accept liability for objects received for safekeeping free of charge.

Insurance

Each participant must have a personal insurance protection which covers costs for rescue and recovery (especially helicopters). When registering for a mozart 100 competition, it is possible to take out a Nürnberger-Bergschutz insurance if you do not yet have the appropriate insurance cover.

Maximum number of participants

A maximum number of participants for the individual events and a resulting waiting list can be determined by the organizer at any time.

Race Committee

The instructions of the race management, organisation team, medical doctors and rescue services have to be complied with. Non-compliance will result in disqualification from the run.

The race management and the organisation team can issue warnings in case participants violate the competition rules. Two warnings lead to immediate disqualification of the participant, to instant finishing of the race for the participant, resp. to the participant's removal from the results list. Disqualification may be effected on the course, at the finishing line or retroactively when the offence is detected.

The organiser may bar disqualified participants from registration in subsequent years. Participants who behave unfairly to other participants may be barred from starting.

Complaints and appeals against disqualification have to be submitted to the arbitration board of mozart 100® within 2 hours of the imposition of this sanction in written form. The decision of the arbitration board is final; there is no further right of appeal against this decision. The arbitration board is appointed by the organising committee of mozart 100® and works independently.

The organiser does not accept any liability for accidents, consequential damage or diseases. The participants are recommended to prepare thoroughly for the competition. The organiser has the right to suspend or dismiss unfit participants for health reasons or to bar them from starting. Participants who arrive after the end of the time limits will be dismissed, i.e. they have to return the starting number.

Ranking categories

For the races mozart 100, mozart Ultra and mozart Marathon the following age groups apply (male/female):

Year of Birth	Category
2005-1990	Junior
1989-1971	Master

The mozart Half Marathon, mozart Light and mozart City Trail are ranked separately by sex only - no age groups.

Nordic Walking

Nordic Walkers are highly welcome to all competitions. Though, there is no separate ranking and no award ceremony for Nordic Walkers. Nordic Walkers will be listed in the time keeping separately.

Team competitions

In the mozart 100 and mozart Ultra competitions, the team rankings are a relay competition.

Each relay consists of up to four persons, whereby each person has to complete a distance section. The change between the relay participants takes place in designated handover zones. The transfer between the relay participants takes place by handing over the common bib with the timekeeping chip.

In the mozart City Trail competition, the team consists of three persons whose individual times are added together over a distance of 9 km to form a total team time.

In the relay and team competitions, three categories will be evaluated (independent of age groups): female, male and mixed (at least one female).

Routing

The competitions have to be run on the courses designated by the organiser. The course runs on streets, roads, paths and trails through the Salzburger Land and the City of Salzburg.

The marking of the course will be done by the organisation team best possible. For the completion of the correct routing each participant is responsible for him/herself. Participants have to prepare themselves for the right routing as good as possible. It is not allowed to abbreviate the course.

The organiser reserves the right to make last-minute changes of the course and to exchange with alternative routes prior to the event or in case of adverse weather conditions

Self-sufficiency

Partial self-sufficiency is defined for each competition. The number of refreshment zones is marked in all Trace de Trail links of the courses. Timing

In all competitions, times are registered exclusively by the timing system via RFID-tag. The RFID-tag is fixed on the backside of the starting number. There is no rental fee for the RFID-tag. Own timing equipment is not allowed. The RFID-tag has to be worn during the competition in line with the organiser's instructions.

Without RFID-Tag, times will not be registered. The timing systems can only read the organisers' RFID-tags. All other timing systems cannot be processed.

The indicated control times must be respected at all times. If a participant passes the checkpoint after the end of the checkpoint time, the start number will be marked and the runner will be taken out of the race.

Participants can only be ranked if they have met all time limits and have been timed at all check points. Participants without RFID tags are not included in the result list.

Each participant and each relay team shares responsibility for the registration of their section times and total time. The participants have to wear the chip required for timing during the competition in line with the instructions of the organiser. Starting numbers may be neither made smaller nor modified in any other way.

Ultra-Trail World Tour Health Policy Rules

Preventive and Research Actions concerning Health Policy

The organisation decided to set up preventive and research actions concerning health policy during the race. These actions have neither the vocation nor the competence to be substitutes for national and international regulations concerning anti-doping, but aim to strengthen the medical supervision that the organisation wishes for. They are managed jointly by the ITRA (International Trail Running Association), the Ultra Trail World Tour (UTWT) and the association Athletes For Transparency (AFT). These voluntary actions are led by a Medical Commission consisting of doctors who can take advice from the experts of their choice and are, in particular, asked to give consultative advice to the race jury on the medical state of participants.

Each runner agrees to:

1. declare the following information to the medical commission:
 - any medical history and/or pathology in particular those which may increase risk during the sport.
 - the regular use of treatments and medicines during the 15 days prior to the start of the race.
 - all requests for or use of medicines subject to a Therapeutic Usage Exemption (TUE).

The declaration of this information to the medical commission must be made through each runner's ITRA health page which each runner can create free of charge on the ITRA website:
https://itra.run/page/381/My_health_space.html

To open an account is necessary in order to access the health page.

The medical information declared on the pages is accessible only to the medical commission and the Organization's own medical team.

2. accept to submit any urine, and/or blood, and/or capillary, and/or saliva samples and the associated analyses requested by the Organisation's Medical Commission, on the understanding that the costs for the sampling and analyses are covered, directly, by the Organisation
3. to accept to answer any request that the medical commission may make based on information that they have collected, in order to discuss their ability or not to participate in the race for which they are registered . As a result of the meeting, the Medical Counsel may suggest that the race Jury exclude the runner from the race.
4. accept the use of data concerning the results of research, while knowing that the data used will be strictly anonymous. According to the data protection act, the runner will have a right of access, rectification and opposition to the data concerning them. The Organisation's Medical Commission will be the entity through whom the runner can exercise this right.

Any unreasonable breach, refusal, or transmission of erroneous information in connection with the health policy can result in the exclusion of the runner from the competition.
